

Innovative Restorations Service Agreement

Thank you for choosing Innovative Restorations Inc. This agreement outlines potential factors that may impact your project. Due to its complexity, please anticipate possible delays and additional costs.

Factors that may affect a project (not inclusive):

- Given the vast array of part combinations, Innovative Restorations cannot guarantee absolute compatibility of all products before assembly. Manufacturer updates and external factors may lead to fitment or functional challenges. While our team diligently works to mitigate these issues, unforeseen complications may arise.
- Resolving compatibility or fitment issues can be time-intensive. Any additional labor, shipping/handling fees, replacement parts, or related expenses will be the sole responsibility of the customer. Innovative Restorations is not liable for costs associated with resolving component-related issues.
- Innovative Restorations does not work off of customer imposed deadlines due to the nature of the restoration process. Please be prepared for possible delays, additional expenses, or unforeseen challenges. Your patience is valued, and we commit to keeping you promptly informed in case of any delays.
- Insurance on the vehicle while in the possession of Innovative Restorations Inc. is the responsibility of the vehicle owner.

Customer-Supplied Parts & Warranty Disclaimer

- Innovative Restorations cannot provide a warranty for any customer-supplied parts or hardware. While we will confirm proper operation at the time of delivery, we cannot guarantee long-term performance.
- If an issue arises after delivery, Innovative Restorations reserves the right to charge for diagnosis and any necessary repairs.
- Should customer-supplied parts be incorrect or incompatible, additional charges will apply for the time spent verifying and sourcing the correct components. With customer approval, Innovative Restorations reserves the right to procure the proper parts to complete the repair.

Your business is greatly appreciated, and we strive to exceed expectations.
